

Aquatic Adventures Rental Policy

Aquatic Adventures, Inc. maintains the following policies regarding equipment rental. Please read through this information careful:

1. Before rental equipment may be removed from the store, Aquatic Adventures, Inc. must have the imprint of a major credit card on file.
2. If life support equipment (tank, regulator, BCD, etc.) is being rented, the renter must present a valid certification card from an RSTC-member agency.
3. During the time of rental, the renter is responsible for the proper care of rented gear as outlined in the PADI Open Water Diver manual or appropriate PADI specialty manual. By renting gear from Aquatic Adventures, Inc., the renter declares an understanding of the proper use and maintenance of the rented equipment.
4. The renter will be charged full retail prices for any equipment that is damaged due to negligence, including exposure to heat or cold.
5. All gear returned to Aquatic Adventures, Inc. must be rinsed properly. The renter will be charged $10 for each item that requires rinsing when it is returned.
6. All rental equipment is due back to Aquatic Adventures, Inc. by 7:00 p.m. on the date shown on the "Equipment Rental Agreement." Any renter who fails to return gear at the appropriate time will be charged the current daily rental rate per day as a late fee. Equipment that is not returned within 3 business days of the return date will be considered stolen and will be reported to the appropriate authorities.
7. During the time of rental, life support equipment may only be used by certified divers or divers in training who are accompanied by a certified scuba instructor. Use of life support equipment by non-certified divers is strictly prohibited.

I, _____, understand and agree to the policies stated above. I am fully aware that I am responsible for the care and the timely return of the equipment I am renting. If I fail to properly care for or return the equipment I am issued according to the terms above, I am aware that I will be charged for damages or late return fees.
